RUSS CHURCH SERVICES HELD BY NEW PRIEST

For the first time in six years, certain members of Honolulu's Russian population have attended a religious service which they could understand and enter into. On Saturday evening the first services of the new Russian church in Hawaii were held in Trinity chapel on the Episcopal cathedral grounds, and on Sunday morning the second service was held. The Very Rev. J. Korshinsky, who recently arrived in Honolulu, conducted the services. He is an archpriest in the Russian church.

The services of preparation, which was held Saturday night, was well attended, as the news of the gathering spread quickly in the Russian colony.
At 8:30 o'clock yesterday morning the services were in the form of a celebration of the Holy Eucharist. According to the custom of the Russian church, the worshippers stood throughout the service, except when kneeling. Many of the responses were sung to the music in use in the Russian church by a choir which was formed by Rev. Korshinsky.

At the close of the service, many of those who had attended remained to thank Rev. Korshinsky, and also Bishop Henry Bond Restarick for allowing them to use Trinity chapel. It is expected that within a short time a priest of the Russian church will be given permanent station in Honolulu.
Rev. Korshinsky speaks English fluently.

Schofield Notes

(Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence)
SCHOFIELD BARRACKS, Dec. 12.
—Col. L. W. V. Kennon, recently transferred from the 25th to the 26th Infantry, has been relieved from command of the 1st Hawaiian Brigade.
Col. Daniel L. Howell, 1st Infantry, assumes command by seniority until the arrival of Gen. Frederick S. Strong.

First Lieut. Charles D. Daly, 1st Field Artillery, who will arrive on the transport tomorrow, has been assigned to Battery B. Second Lieut. Herman Erlenkötter has been assigned to Battery F.

There will be a special dance at the Mounted Service mess on Wednesday night to which all are invited.

The 4th Cavalry officers led by Lieut.-Col. William W. Forsyth took the Russian ride on Saturday afternoon. All the officers completed the three miles within the prescribed 11 minutes and took the nine jumps without a mishap. Owing to illness or injury to themselves or their mounts six officers of the regiment did not start and will take the ride at some later date. The officers of the 1st Field Artillery expect to take the ride next Saturday.

The new six-inch siege howitzers brought up last week from Fort Kamehameha by A and B Batteries have been a center of interest ever since their arrival. They look like giants alongside the three-inch field pieces.
They fire a 120-pound projectile using high angle fire at ranges up to about 8000 yards.

Pvt. Charles A. Walters, Company G, 1st Infantry, lies in the Post Hospital very seriously injured, with a fractured skull. He had his head caved in Saturday afternoon with a beer bottle in a drunken brawl at the Volcano House, a beer garden at Leilehua operated just across the reservation line.

D. H. HITCHCOCK'S PAINTINGS SHOWN

A notable display of D. Howard Hitchcock's paintings will begin tonight at 8 o'clock at the University Club. The exhibit is part of the series promoted by the club itself to encourage art and artists in Hawaii and to bring together the artists and the appreciative public.

Mr. Hitchcock's paintings will be on display for two weeks, each evening the club being open to visitors. Members, of course, can take guests at any time. Some of the new canvases by this premier painter of Hawaiian scenes and people will be on view.

EVERY HIBISCUS GROWER TO HAVE CHANCE AT SHOW

Hibiscus growers, be they large or small, are to have an equal chance in the big hibiscus show to be held at Carnival time, according to Gerrit P.
Wilder, president of the Hawaii Hibiscus Club and chairman of the hibiscus committee of the Carnival.

"We are making this a type exhibit," says Mr. Wilder, "the number of flowers of each type to be limited. This will make the work of the judges much easier. It will also tend to get producers to pick a few of the very best flowers, instead of a large number of good ones."

"As to types," says Mr. Wilder, "we will have one table of pink flowers with dark centers, another of pink flowers with lighter centers, and so on. It will be the same for the red flowers and the yellow. There is such a wide variety of flowers that it is bound to make a big show."

In a short time a small booklet is to be printed listing the various types of flowers that are to come under the exhibit. This booklet will be distributed among all the people of the islands who raise hibiscus, or care to enter the show.

WASHINGTON SOCIETY

(Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence)
WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 29.— Miss Georgia Schofield, daughter of the late Lieut.-Gen. John M. Schofield, will be introduced at a tea-dance this afternoon at Rauscher's by her mother, Mrs. John Hewson, and in addition to the charming welcome which will be extended to her by her own associates and by scores and scores of the old friends of her father and of her stepfather and mother, she has also the ecstacy of being the first debutante of the winter. Gen. Schofield was at the head of the army for several years and frequently acted as secretary of war during the Cleveland and Harrison administrations.

Miss Schofield is a charming young girl, with already a wide acquaintance in the younger set, gained during school days and during her vacations in this city at holiday times. Her half-sister, Mrs. Avery D. Andrews of Philadelphia, the elder daughter of the late Gen. Schofield, is Mrs. Hewson's house-guest and will also assist at the reception this afternoon.

Mrs. Hewson will be assisted by Mrs. Lansing, wife of the secretary of state; Mrs. Daniels, wife of the secretary of the navy; Mrs. Lane, wife of the secretary of the interior; Mrs.
Avery D. Andrews and Mrs. George Duncan.

The marriage of Miss Nancy Johnson and Lieut. Roscoe G. Crawford took place at the colonial home of her father, Representative Ben. Johnson, near Bardonia, Ky., Wednesday.

The ceremony was performed by the Very Rev. C. J. O'Connell in the drawing room amid beautiful decorations of palms, amylax and American beauty roses. The bride was given in marriage by her father. Miss Margaret McChord of this city was maid of honor. Lieut. Bradford Chenoweth was best man. Little Rebecca Cox Talbot, niece of the bride, was the flower girl. Mrs. Ben Talbot played the wedding march.

The bride's gown was of white tulle, with court train of broadened silver cloth, and a veil of white tulle and orange blossoms. The bride carried white roses and lilies of the valley.

The maid of honor wore tulle over silver cloth, and carried American beauty roses. Mrs. Ben Johnson, the mother of the bride, wore a gown of orchid velvet with silver trimmings.
Mrs. Crawford, mother of the groom, wore black satin. Mrs. Lee Hamilton of Louisville, sister of the bride, was in brown velvet with trimmings of blue, and wore a corsage bouquet of violets and lilies of the valley. Mrs.
Kowenbergh, grandmother of the bride, wore a black crepe de chine gown with a corsage bouquet of orchids and lilies of the valley.

The only guest other than members of the immediate families of the bride and groom was Mrs. Ollie James, a close friend of the bride. Mrs. James wore a handsome gown of blue satin with silver trimmings.

Mr. and Mrs. Crawford will sail November 27 from New York for Panama, where they will make their home.

The annual drill and tea-dance for the Army Relief Society will take place at Fort Myer Friday, December 18. President Wilson has been invited to review the drill and it is expected that he will accept.

Mrs. Hugh L. Scott, wife of the chief of staff, is chairman of the entertainment committee and has able support in the assistance of the army women living in and stationed about Washington and Fort Myer.

The Army Relief Society is a most worthy charity, caring as it does for the destitute widows and children of officers and enlisted men. It is supported by army people and patriotic civilians.

Col. Wilbur Wilder has promised a very complete artillery and cavalry drill and the tea and dance will follow immediately after in the administration building. The music is to be furnished by the 5th Cavalry band.

Among the patronesses are Mrs.
Lindley Garrison, Mrs. William Mc-Adoo and Mrs. Robert M. Thompson.

Miss Elizabeth Harrison, daughter of the late President Benjamin Harrison, will arrive tomorrow to be the guest of Mrs. Joseph E. Kuhn and to attend the debut Wednesday afternoon of Miss Georgia Schofield.

BUILDING PERMITS.

Building permits for last week show estimated costs of residences, dwellings, cottages, stores and garages to the amount of approximately $33,000.
Fees for permits amounted to $85.

Lee Chee's application for a store and store rooms on Liliha and Kukui streets, estimated to cost $5800, is the largest on the list, while second largest is $5000, the estimated cost of a telephone exchange building of the Mutual Telephone Company. The exchange is to be located on the mauka side of Palolo avenue.

Legislation to retire Justice Lamar of the supreme court on full pay because of his physical disability will be introduced in Congress.

The Nashua (N. H.) Manufacturing Company and the Jackson Manufacturing Company refused to grant the request of striking employees for an increase in wages.
